All cultivars listed in collection years 2007 – 2009 and 2015, plus Stratosphere, Rapture, Chromacolor, Intrigue, Monal and Quail are American-bred daffodils and are eligible for entry in the Red-White-Blue Collection. (Section B, Class 18 and Section A, Class 6)

Avalanche (1906), Saint Keverne (1934), Thalia (1916), Sweetness (1939), Beryl (1906) and Dreamlight (1934) are all registered before 1940 as indicated by dates and eligible for the Historic Classes (Section J and the Anne Duvall Miller Massie Trophy Section A, class 12).

Erlicheer (1951) is classified a Historic, not a Classic, despite its registration date and is eligible for the Historic Classes (Section J and the Anne Duvall Miller Massie Trophy Section A, class 12).

Salome (1958), Stratosphere (1968), Tahiti (1956), Merlin (1956), Ceylon (1943), Dallas (1942), Ice Wings (1958), Stainless (1960), Weena (1949), White Plume (1957), and Acropolis (1955) are all cultivars registered between 1940 and 1969 inclusive as indicated by dates and are eligible to be entered in the Classic Section. (Section L) Note that the last 6 cultivars listed are included in the 2013 GCV collection.

Dreamlight and Curly Lace are Intermediate daffodils in size so may be entered in the Standard Classes as well as in the Intermediate Classes (Section K).

Salome, Tahiti, Fragrant Rose, Jamestown, Merlin, Ceylon, Stainless, White Plume, Dreamlight, Acropolis, Goose Green, High Society, and Manly are all Irish cultivars eligible for The Gale and Lockwood Frizzell Award. (Section N, Class 245).
